In Review NATIONAL EVENTS

1. On March 9, President Johnson presents the Medal of Honor to Spec. 6 Lawrence Joel, the first medic to win the nation's highest award for military gallantry.

2. In October, thousands of anti-Vietnam-war protest marchers descended on Washington, D. C. and created scenes like this at the mall entrance of the Pentagon.

3. Astronauts Virgil I. Grissom, Edward H. White and Roger B. Chaffee died at Cape Kennedy on January 27 when fire broke out in their Apollo capsule.

4. On September 9, Debra Dene Barnes, Moran, Kansas, was chosen Miss America 1968. Debra was the second Miss Kansas in a row to win this high honor.

5. This young lady is holding six pieces of high-resolution film, called chips, developed by IBM. All of Shakespeare's works can be recorded on six chips.

6. This aircraft of the future, the 231-foot Boeing 747, will someday carry 490 passengers at 625 m.p.h., thus enabling air fares to be reduced.

7. In August, flood waters of the Chena River in Alaska caused hundreds of millions of dollars in damage. Fifteen thousand residents of Fairbanks were evacuated.

8. In July, 4,700 Federal troops were called in to suppress rioting in Detroit, Michigan. Many other cities experienced similar riots during 1967.

9. On November 9, following years of preparation and the expenditure of billions of dollars, the first giant Saturn rocket was launched from Cape Kennedy.

10. UCLA's basketball team, featuring 7-foot, 2-inch Lew Alcindor, was undefeated in 1967 and could conceivably set an all time win record during 1968.

11. Secretary Robert C. Weaver looks over a possible solution to part of the pollution problem, a minicar which features a small gasoline-electric engine.

12. In January, a record-smashing 26 inches of snow fell in Chicago in 29 hours and brought the entire area to a virtual standstill for more than a week.

HIGH SCHOOL

This organization is a very busy group. It takes much practice. They are involved in many appearances throughout the school year. Then the summer program will find them still practicing for the many areas of participation, such as parades, concerts and other appearances. They are a hard-working group.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Nancy Cherney, Juanita Brandt, Cynthia Quam, Janet Koch, Sandy Sistek.

To compile and edit a Yearbook is a tremendous task. Yet no one seems to realize it. There are endless moments of worry about the pictures to use. There are countless moments of hard work in typing out the copy work. There are deadlines to meet. For all this, we wish to thank those who had to bear this burden.

Our thanks to Christenson's Studio in Albert Lea for the many courtesies shown to us during the construction of this Annual. Without their assistance it would be impossible for us to present to you all these very fine pictures.

In Review INTERNATIONAL EVENTS

1. British hippies claim that their aim is different from that of American hippies... they don't want to "drop out" of society, but to stay in and change it.
2. French President Charles DeGaulle stirred up a lot of controversy during 1967—here he explains why he feels Britain should not be a Common Market member.
3. Soldiers of the U.S. 4th Infantry Division rest atop Hill 1338 following a fierce battle with the North Vietnamese for the hill in the Dak To area.
4. Israeli soldiers fly their flag from a mosque in the Sinai desert captured by the Israelis during the short-lived Arab-Israeli war in June of 1967.
5. Waving red-colored booklets of Mao's quotations, pro-communist Chinese swarm in front of the Governor's House during May demonstrations in Hong Kong.
6. Mrs. Svetlana Alliluyeva, daughter of the late Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin, was a bit surprised that her defection created so much stir in the U. S.

7

7. In June, Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin came to the United States to address the UN about the Arab-Israeli war and later talked with President Johnson.

8. An Army vehicle bears the casket of former West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer from Cologne Cathedral, April 25, following a Requiem Mass.

9. Suits came back into fashion during 1967. This one was designed by Lito Manalang for a young fashion house, the year-old British Moderns of New York.

10. This wide angle view of the moon's hidden side was taken on August 6, 1967 and transmitted back to the Jet Propulsion Lab in Pasadena, California.

11. Heavy monsoon rains turned most of South Vietnam into a quagmire during the summer of 1967. Here, U.S. marines prepare to board a Chinook helicopter.

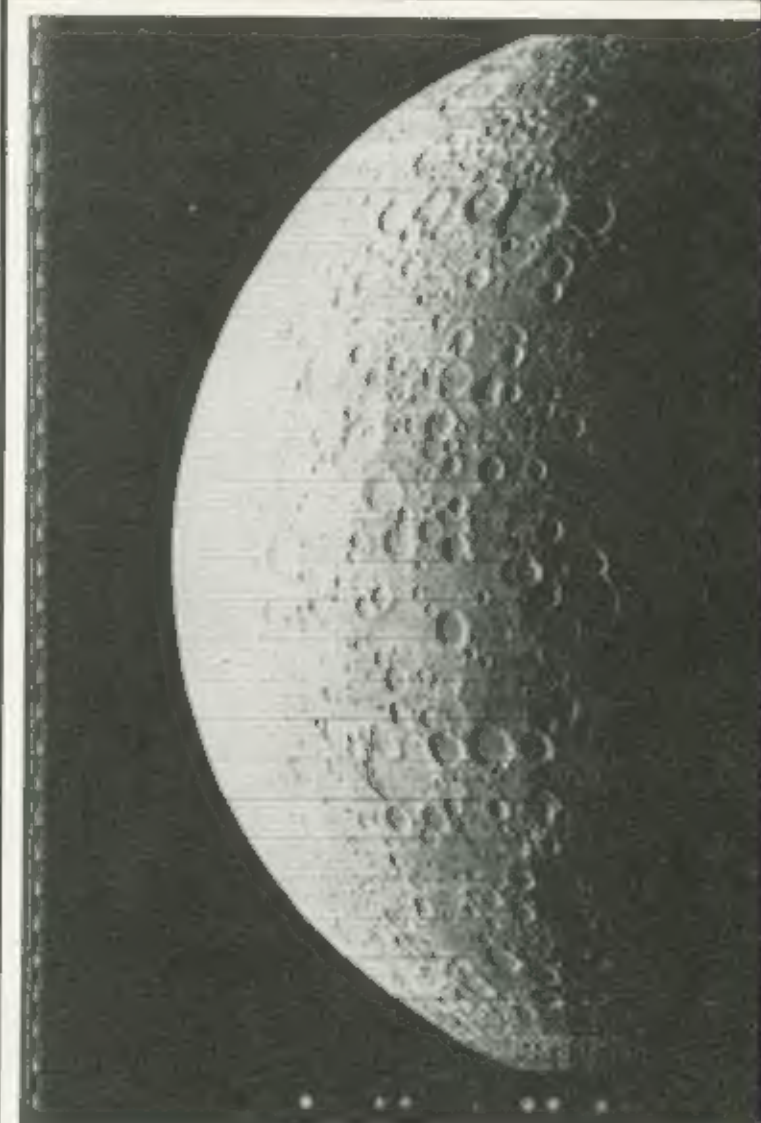

12. President Johnson, shown here in Vietnam, staunchly defended the nation's participation in the Vietnam war despite widespread protests and demonstrations.
